Interaction

Concepts

▢ Page

A page is used for displaying parts of the application to the user.

▦ Container

A container is used to create groups of display elements that can be reused.

▭ Button

A buttons is used so users can trigger an Event from a Page.

▤ Field

Fields are a means to create separation between the page model and the domain model.

💬 Conversation

A conversation is used to create a Q&A based interaction meant for guiding the user towards an answer of solution.

🖼 Image

An image is used for displaying pictures in a container, page, content item, or document.
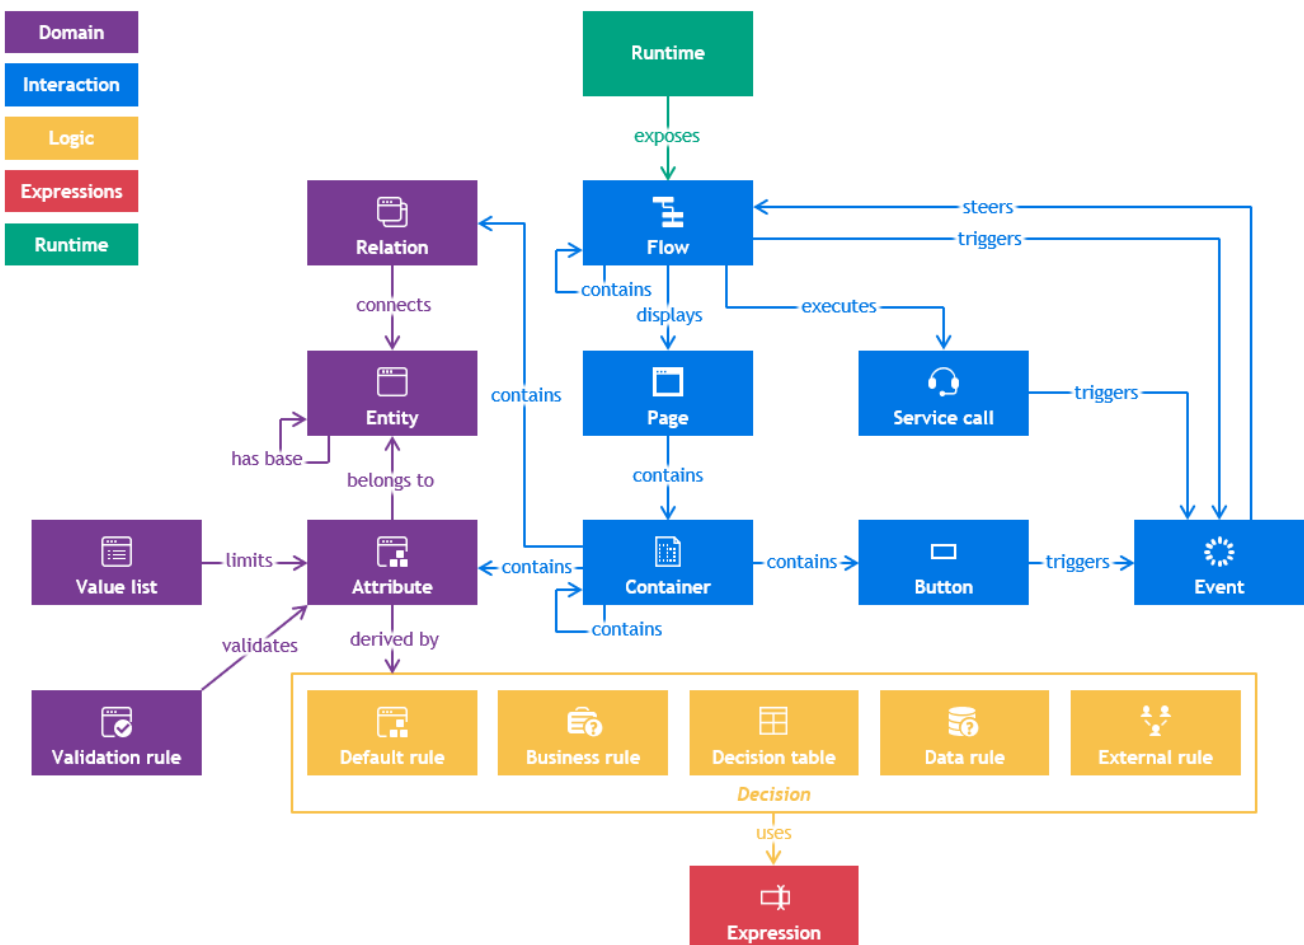

☰ Text item

A text items is used for displaying text in a document, or on a page.

🗎 Content item

A content item is used to create structure in text items and other content items.

T Asset

Visuals

This visual does not aim to be complete, but rather to provide insight.